DESIGN CONCEPT

Nest. It provides a safe space to grow and develop. A place to come back to and recharge. A place for the young to gather and share their experiences. It's a place of support.

The Aviary is an actively engaging student lounge for the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. From fun activities to impromptu meeting spaces, the student lounge design is flexible to suit the needs of college students. The design solution was driven by three adjectives; collaborative, engaging, and animated. Through effective space planning and intentional product selection this space engages the campus community and provides a safe space to land.

DESIGN FEATURES

The Aviary is perfect space for students to study, collaborate, and socialize. The design accompanies various seating arrangements to meet the needs of young students. A custom wall partition creates a impromptu meeting area and creates a sense of privacy. Multiple arranged poufs create the perfect hangout to study or socialize. All of these different styles of seating throughout the Aviary makes the space flexible and welcoming to all students. Staying true to the inspired nest concept, the Aviary features natural finishes to create a grounded and comfortable environment. The Aviary also features multiple finishes designed to combat the high traffic noise levels of the Aviary. From suspended felt clouds, natural moss acoustic tiles, sound absorbing light fixtures, and felt wall panels.

DAVIDSON RESIDENCE

Blue Ridge Georgia
Year Completed - 2022

DESIGN CONCEPT

Raw, rustic, and reinvented define the Davidson modern Pioneer inspired home. The natural elements of the land provided a home and even more a lifestyle for the pioneers. Built with locally harvested materials of timber and stone, the home is crafted to the true nature of the original pioneers. From the exterior to the interior, the home portrays a natural and raw aesthetic. Using construction methods and furnishings of the modern era, the pioneer style is reinvented for the Davidson family. Through the incorporation of sustainable design strategies and universal design principles the building envelope is transformed into a home that is comfortable and appealing for generations.

Design Concept

The Spanish-Mediterranean Revival Style influenced interior is perfectly suited for a young professional couple. The interior incorporates the classic style of Spanish-Mediterranean but with a fresh and modern approach to suit the daily lives of the couple. Through a warm color palette and use of architectural elements the space encompasses the historic atmosphere of downtown Lakeland. The warm and relaxing space is the perfect home to host parties, invite family, and do business.
