Shadowing Requirements
Required Shadowing	How to Log Shadowing Hours
Applicants are required to shadow a licensed occupational therapist for at least 40 hours. Additional hours of shadowing are encouraged.	Observation/shadowing hours can and should be logged in the OTCAS application. Follow the instructions here to log hours in OTCAS. The OTCAS does not verify hours, contact LMU for additional information on observation hours

GRE*
The admissions committee will base decisions upon several components of an application package. They include: overall and math/science grade point averages (GPAs), the personal interview, personal and professional references. Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores are NOT required for application .
* A majority of OT programs require the GRE for admission consideration. While LMU does not require the GRE applicants may opt to take it if applying to other programs. It is best to take the GRE in the winter of the third year

Candidacy Status
The LMU OTD Program will submit for Candidacy Status on April 15, 2020 by the Accreditation Council of Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE), which is required to admit students. The inaugural cohort begin in May 2021, pending ACOTE approval. For information on the full accreditation process, see OTD Program Accreditation
